It is flu shot time again. Residents are advised to prepare for the flu season with a vaccination. Minden Hospital Nurse Cathy Griffin administers the shot to Halls Lake resident Lloyd Clifton as his wife Evelyn watches. Flu shots are available at the Minden Hospital, at special clinics, or through your family doctor.

Hodgson changes hats

Describing his change of responsibility as a "huge promotion," Victoria-Haliburton MPP Chris Hodgson has been appointed the Chair of the Management Board of Cabinet.

The change was part of the Cabinet shuffle announced Friday morning by Ontario Premier Mike Harris. Hodgson will retain his responsibilities for Northern Development and Mines, but lose his post as head of the Ministry of Natural Resources. The much beleaguered John Snobelen, the former Minister of Education, takes over the Natural Resources portfolio.

"I will certainly miss Natural Resources," Hodgson said Friday afternoon. "But I feel I have been able to accomplish a lot of good things for the ministry."

As far as the public is concerned, the head of Management Board is a position with a much lower profile. However in that post, Hodgson will carry a great deal of responsibility over the daily operation of the government as a whole.

He said the post has five major responsibilities, including:

- approving and overseeing the business plans and budgets of other ministries.
- acting as the "employer" for all government employees, and therefore being involved in contract negotiations.
- devising government communications strategy.
- setting rules for government operations in such areas as purchasing, tendering etc.

Two complete councils acclaimed

Voters in two municipalities in Haliburton County will find their choices rather limited when they go to the polls November 10.

Municipal offices in the townships of Stanhope and Bicroft were filled by acclamation when the deadline for filing nomination papers closed Friday afternoon at 5 p.m.

It doesn't mean electors in these two townships will be without a civic duty to perform. While there will be no municipal candidates in either of the municipalities, a vote for the county's representative on the expanded board of education must take place, so polling will take place in these areas in any event.

While these two municipalities saw their entire council seats filled by acclamation, there are other heads of councils who have been returned unchallenged. Among them are Anson, Hindon and Minden Reeve Jeanne Anthon, Dysart et al Reeve Murray Fearrey, Glamorgan Reeve Elva Bates, Lutterworth Reeve Jim McMahon, Sherborne et al Reeve Don Shortreed, Snowdon Reeve Ross Rigney as well as a number of deputy reeves and councillors. (See complete list on page 4.)

While just a week ago it looked like it could be a very quiet municipal election, things heated up quickly during the past week. Many new-comers and veteran politicians threw their hats into the rings across Haliburton County and Northern Victoria and Peterborough counties.

The politicians now have until November 10 to convince fellow citizens to give them their vote, and then a new, three year term of municipal government begins.

The mystery of the missing cats

by Jerry Grozelle

It may sound like something from the horror flick genre, but Minden is experiencing a phenomenon that could use the talents of Sherlock Holmes. It would be called the Case of the Disappearing Cats.

Over the past few weeks no less than 18 felines have vanished without a trace, leaving their owners bewildered and despondent. Losing their cats is like losing a member of the family to many pet lovers.

One such cat lover is Edith Smith of Minden Pines Cottages on Orde Street. She has been the hardest hit, in terms of numbers, with eight cats and two kittens disappearing over the past couple of weeks.

"I'm just frantic," said the 86 year-old cat lover.

"I'm worried sick. I don't know what to do. This is a very bad situation."

Smith says there is no apparent explanation for the disappearance of so many cats in such a short time.

18 cats missing in the Deep Bay Road area

She says she's even heard speculation that there may be some kind of cult afoot gathering up area residents' pets.

Smith has contacted Ministry of Natural Resources personnel in an attempt to solve the mystery. They were unable to shed much light on the situation.

Dr. Peter Bennett of the Minden Animal Clinic has confirmed that at least 18 cats have been reported missing, including one that has an electronic implant. There may be more which haven't been reported. Most of the losses have been along the Deep Bay Road, but a couple have disappeared from Spring Valley Road, across the river.

Bennett, by way of explanation, said, "It is probably a predator, like a fox or coyote or possibly even a bobcat."

He said any of those predators will take a cat.

"There are coyotes around here that are bold as brass," the veterinarian said.

Smith says she hopes that by making the problem known people will be more watchful and maybe someone will be able to confirm the cause of the missing cats.

AH&M council digs deep to keep emergency department open

The following are items from the October meeting of Anson, Hindon and Minden council.

$10,000 for emergency services

Anson, Hindon and Minden council passed a resolution authorizing the transfer of $10,000 from a reserve fund for the Minden Hospital Emergency Services Expenditures. The money will be used to help offset the cost of emergency doctors at the Minden hospital.

Reeve Jeanne Anthon noted, "It is critical to keep the emergency department open at the Minden hospital."

She voiced the concern that if it is closed, "we may never get it back."

Deputy-reeve Jerry Rome said it is important to bridge the gap until the new hospital is built in Minden.

The money came from interest from a fund that was set up to finance the local ambulance service. The service is now operated by the province, so the fund was deemed unnecessary.

Mini skateboard park

Anson, Hindon and Minden council is looking favourably on the establishment of a mini skateboard park on the concrete pad of the old curling club on Bobcaygeon road.

Troy Miles and Jarrett Aggett attended the September 30 Parks and Recreation Committee meeting to discuss a proposal for such a facility.

Miles told the committee a group of skate-boarders were looking for an area that could be designated as a skateboard park. He noted that such a facil-

Hodgson was also named Deputy House Leader. His responsibilities with that post include negotiating with the other political parties in the Legislature over the order of business and other matters to ensure the business of the legislature moves ahead smoothly.

"I was honoured to be chosen for these responsibilities," Hodgson concluded.

THE HOSPITALS OF ONTARIO

Community committee will help keep the centre open

CHACE Day Care will remain open until March

CHACE Day Care in Minden received a reprieve Tuesday evening.

The Prentice Street facility was slated to close in about a month's time. However, reacting to the intense interest of parents and the community, the board of directors has agreed to postpone that closure date to the end of the fiscal year, March 31, 1998.

Chair of the CHACE board of directors, Gord Schakelaar announced the extension following a brief ad hoc meeting of the board members who were in attendance. In making the announcement, he emphasized however, that in return for extending the deadline the board is looking for community support to increase the enrolment at the centre and reduce the board's accumulated deficit, which currently stands at $22,000.

The decision came near the end of a lengthy public meeting called to explain to parents why the day care centre was closing. Over 55 individuals crowded into the centre to hear the board explain its position. Most of those individuals then rallied to the support of the operation, pledging time and effort to raise funds for its operation and to help boost the centre's enrolment.

During the opening remarks, executive director of CHACE Diane Loucks explained that over the past few years the enrolment at the centre has dropped, reaching a low of 31% of capacity earlier this year. She noted the centre would operate on a break-even financial basis with a 75 to 80% enrolment.

She explained how the board had attempted to attract new enrolment through a survey of area residents earlier in the year, asking about their day care needs, and a poster campaign throughout the catchment area. Despite the effort, the enrolment did not increase significantly.

Several parents asked why they hadn't been informed about the impending crisis. "We could have helped," one parent commented drawing nods of agreement from others in the room. "I would have helped with fund-raising if I had known you were going to slam the door in my face."

It was explained that the board did not want to aggravate the crisis, fearing it would skew the results of the survey. Loucks noted that it wasn't until September that the board in fact realized it was faced with the closure of the day care service. "I think we all hoped that the enrolment would turn around," she said.

Following an emergency board meeting September 18 it was decided to close the facility rather than incur any additional debt. At that time parents were notified through a letter sent home from the centre.

Word quickly spread through the community, prompting one grandparent to begin circulating a petition. "I have 267 names on this petition that says the centre should stay open," Gord Monk told the meeting. He said the support for the petition is an indication that it isn't just the parents who use the centre who are concerned about the service.

A meeting had been called a week earlier between the CHACE Board and the Anson, Hindon and Minden and Lutterworth municipal councils to determine if there might be some way to keep the centre functioning. At the close of that meeting, the municipalities agreed to fund an advertising blitz in an effort to boost enrolment. That effort went ahead with flyers being distributed in the October 10 edition of TV Times, to the residents within the centre's catchment area. (Reeve Jeanne Anthon has pointed out that the advertising flyer states the closure of the centre is slated for mid November. "The situation has obviously changed with Tuesday's (October 7) meeting. Although the closing date on the flyer which has been distributed is now incorrect, the urgency is just as great. We hope that anyone who can take advantage of the services available at the CHACE Day Care Centre in Minden will do so.")

While Tuesday's meeting saw a great deal of frustration and anger, most of it dissipated when the board indicated it was willing to extend the closure deadline. A committee of parents and others was quickly formed and plans were made to organize fund raising events for the centre and to help in finding new youngsters to boost the enrolment. Both the CHACE board and the new committee will remain in contact to ensure each group is aware of the other's activities.

Moderator Jim Blake addresses the crowd at the CHACE Day Care Centre last Tuesday evening in Minden.

Teachers rally in Lindsay

Hundreds of teachers from Haliburton and Victoria met for a rally Wednesday evening to express their displeasure with the government's Bill 160.

The gathering was held at Lindsay Collegiate and Vocational School with a large contingent attending from Haliburton County.

Provincial representatives of the teachers' federations were on hand to explain the ramifications of the proposed legislation. The teachers have threatened to go out on strike if the government proceeds with the bill as it now stands.

"We are threatening this job action because we have an obligation to our students," Rosemary Hurrt of the Federation of Women Teachers told the group. "The government insists this bill will improve the quality of education....we agree with that premise, but not by destroying the system. What the government has planned will lead to education impoverishment, not improvement," she said.

Other speakers followed on the same theme emphasizing the need for solidarity among the federations.

"The government is not interested in the quality of education, just in reducing its costs," Linda Frost, representing another teachers' group said.

The teachers were told to lobby their MPPs and be active in telling the community why they object to the legislation.

Editorial Nothing to be gained

Even the staunchest supporter of the Conservative government must be hard pressed to believe that removing another billion dollars from the education budget and up to 10,000 teachers from the province's schools is going to improve the quality of education in Ontario. However, that is in fact what the proponents of the legislation, Bill 160, believe it will do.

Judging by the very broad powers which the bill would return to the politicians and bureaucrats at Queen's Park, the only major improvement the legislation has in mind is the province's bottom line and the funding of the political promise to cut income tax by 30%. Getting our financial house in order is an admirable objective, however we can't help but wonder if the course on which this province has now embarked is both foolhardy and short-sighted.

Gutting the education system, all but eliminating the role of the community in the education process and demonizing the very people who dedicate themselves to the education of our children will not create "better education". Indeed, we can see how the crisis (former) Education Minister John Snobelen has said he would manufacture, has descended upon us like a whirlwind, sweeping away trust and good will in its path. Having created this maelstrom, with a gesture from the Premier, its creator is gone, but his legacy will haunt this province for years to come.

Prosperity comes from a community where the benefits of education are enjoyed by a broad cross-section. Those without the tools that come with a good education not only fail to share in that prosperity, but ultimately become a burden for the rest to carry.

Yes, there is room for improvements. There are likely areas where it could be doing a better job. However, the heartless and pointless destruction which has been visited upon a system which has served this province well, (a system all but created by the Conservatives after World War two we should point out), will gain us nothing but ashes.

Regulations contained in Bill 160 are the major concern to teachers

Editor:

What is Bill 160, the Education Improvement Act?

People ask us, "What is your real beef with this bill?"

As we outlined in our past letters to the editor and the full page advertisement, our concerns about bill 160 and its ramifications on our profession and the students' education are many, such as the threatened removal of a further $1 billion from the Education coffers.

Our main concern, however, is something called regulations. Within the bill there is the power to make regulations which give complete control to the Minister of Education and the cabinet. The Minister of Education can, if the bill passes, introduce and implement almost anything through regulations. The regulations are not subject to a voting procedure in the Legislature. He can, through these regulations, decide to cut the number of teachers, bring in non-teachers to teach, supervise and evaluate, cut time for planning and working with individual students or bring in business managers to run our schools. Beyond that he can do anything else he wishes. He has given his Legislative Council complete power over education, including such things as finances, trustees, directors of education, curriculum, qualification standards of teachers and support staff.

Thank you Dr. Wu

Editor:

With all the bad news in medical health care cut-backs, and some of the best doctors leaving for south of the border, it is indeed assuring and good to know that our community will be served by a physician of Dr. Wu's standards.

Frank and Hildegard Sargeant,
Minden

We are not in support of a government which continues to steam roll over the people of the province. We are not in support of a government which continues to discount the will of the people. We are not in support of a government which continues to give itself complete power through one omnibus bill after another. We are not in support of a government that does not adhere to the values of democracy. We are not in support of Bill 160 because it gives the Education Minister and Mike Harris control over education and we question if Queen's Park politicians know what is best for education.

We are in support of high quality education, integrity and just treatment for all citizens of Ontario.

If you are concerned about democracy in this province, we urge you to call Victoria Haliburton MPP Chris Hodgson (his toll-free number is in the book) or the Minister of Education.

Mining recycling opportunities

Editor:

It is interesting to think that in neighbouring Muskoka, a contractor is being paid to "mine" two landfill sites for recyclable materials. These materials, mostly steel, aluminium and plastic, occupy a sufficiently large volume within the landfill sites to make their expensive removal worthwhile in comparison to the cost associated with developing other landfill sites. This procedure extends the life of the old landfill sites by reducing the volume of refuse in the ground.

Here in Haliburton County, the future of our landfill sites may not be far behind that of Muskoka's. Looking around, it is easy to see how much recyclable material ends up buried rather than in the blue bins provided. My job requires frequent and regular trips to several landfills. Bags of garbage full of cans, bottles and paper, not to mention plenty of cardboard and boxboard can be seen in the hole, ready for burials. It seems many residents, cottagers, and businesses are neglecting a very basic step in managing their own disposal practises. Separating non-recyclable household waste from paper, cardboard, plastic, bottles and cans is our responsibility and will save us money down the road as our landfill sites fill to capacity.

Recycling makes good sense both environmentally and economically. Townships within Haliburton County pay to have recyclable materials trucked elsewhere for sorting and processing into a marketable commodity. This is a financial drain on our tax dollars that are already stretched, so no wonder recycling is not actively promoted. However, a viable alternative that is revenue generating rather than draining, and prolongs the life of landfills is being practised in other jurisdictions close to our own. This involves a processing facility where recyclables are separated, compacted, stored and sold to industry. Such a

Support is appreciated

Editor:

On behalf of the staff at CHACE Day Care, I would like to make many people aware of how appreciative we are.

To the parents of the day care, other members of CHACE Inc. who expressed and showed their support for the day care to remain open during the past few weeks and to The Times for its coverage and supportive editorial, we say thank you.

We feel we have a good program and staff who work well together, but the verbal and written support we have received truly makes us feel that we are necessary and valued.

And of course, a huge thank you to Gord Schakelaar, President of CHACE and the Board of Directors as a whole for giving the day care time to prove its worthiness. You could have ignored the community, and the numbers were there to back you up. Instead, you allowed the membership to help its own cause.

You won't be disappointed.

Wendy Sisson,
Supervisor,
Minden CHACE Day Care.

facility would be revenue generating, provide local employment, encourage greater community involvement and serve to protect the health of every person in this county.

The old adage, "if you are not part of the solution, you're most certainly part of the problem," applies to our landfill sites. Contaminated wells, lakes and streams just don't happen, they are problems created by careless human beings. Creating expensive new landfill sites is no solution. A clean and healthy environment benefits us all. We can pay somebody else to "mine" our garbage or we can get organized and reap the benefits ourselves.

Had coffee the other day with a friend of mine. An ex-cop. He'd been on the force for eight or ten years, then suddenly last spring he'd resigned.

And now it seemed like he might want to talk about it.

I wasn't sure just how to approach the subject. There was a rumour going around that my friend had suffered a nervous breakdown. But why? Did the constant stress of facing down crazed crackheads and homicidal psychopaths finally get to him?

Was it the unrelenting threat of injury and death? The strain of dealing with the human race at its violent, booze- and dope-fueled worst? Is that what got to him, I asked, as gently as I could.

His hand shook slightly as he hoisted the mug to his lips.

"No," he said softly. "It was the paperwork."

My friend estimated that he spent three-quarters of each working day making notes, sending memos, filling in forms and typing out reports. "I wasn't a policeman" he said, "I was an office clerk who happened to carry a gun."

It wasn't the pressure of holding down one of the world's most dangerous jobs that got to him. It was the mind-numbing boredom of shuffling paper all day long.

My pal is not alone. A business consultant by the name of Dianna Booher conducted a survey of 2,000 businesses last year. A few of her conclusions:

- White-collar office workers spend 60 percent of their time checking, filing and retrieving printed information.

- Of all the documents that are printed, copied and distributed by North American business every day, 75 to 80 percent are never referred to again.

- For every dollar spent thinking up documents, it costs up to $80 to print, copy, distribute, file and eventually destroy them.

But that's old news, because this is the age of the computer, right? Paper shuffling is obsolete in the Brave New Electronic World of the Internet and e-Mail.

Wrong. A study from San Jose State University concludes that computers have not replaced old technology, they've merely jumped on its back, adding to the burden.

Office workers don't just answer the regular mail anymore. They also have to respond to inter-office mail, voice mail, teleconferencing, e-mail, faxes, pagers — even Post-It notes. Remember how E-mail was supposed to revolutionize our postal habits by weaning us of our paper habit? Maybe it would if we trusted it, but we don't. Sixty percent of all E-mail is still copied onto paper.

The supreme irony of all those great new space-age 'time saving communication devices' is that using them consumes more, not less of our time. Seventy percent of the people interviewed by San Jose researchers complain that they are 'overwhelmed' in their personal and professional lives just sending and receiving messages.

Some of us are fighting back. A few office workers ease their burden by deliberately allowing the batteries on their pagers and cell phones run down. Other people just leave the dust cover on their home computer monitors. I heard of one CEO in California who returned to his desk after vacation to find more than two thousand E-mail messages waiting for him.

His solution? The 'delete' button. He vaporized the whole works. "I figure if they were really important messages, the senders would get back to me" he explained.

And my friend — the ex-cop?

Sold his computer. Turned in his cell phone. Applied for an unlisted telephone number and landed a job in the hardware department of the local Canadian Tire. Goes fishing on his days off.

And he smiles. A lot.

'Way more than he did as a cop.

The undefeated HHSS senior field hockey will play host to the undefeated Lakefield College school team Friday in Haliburton

HHSS senior soccer team battles for playoff berth

The Haliburton Highlands Secondary School senior boys soccer team added a win to its season October 8 at the Hal Hi field, moving it into a tie for second place in the league standings.

The Redmen played host to Fenelon Falls last Wednesday, opening a 2-0 lead in the first half and hung on for a 2-1 win.

Sheamus Donnery opened the scoring for the Redmen and Perry Belekoukia added the second marker.

Coach Peter Bertelsen said Redmen goalie Jason Kasepчук stopped a lot of shots from close range. Nathan Stephenson was strong on defence and forwards Sheamus Donnery and Jesse Sternberg led the attack.

The Redmen have won two and lost three. They remain in the hunt for a playoff berth.

"If we can beat LCVI it could put us in the Kawartha West finals," Bertelsen said.

The junior Redmen soccer team lost its game to Fenelon Falls by a 5-0 score. But, as one Redmen player said coming off the field after the game, "at least it's better than 9-0." That was the score the last time the two teams met.

The highlight of the game for the juniors was a close call when Dan Vanderlip had a chance to keep the Redmen in the game. His shot was stopped at the line.

Sheamus Donnery controls the ball in the Fenelon Falls end during the senior soccer game at Haliburton on September 8. The senior Redmen beat the Falcons 2-1 to keep their playoff hopes alive.

The junior Redmen soccer team didn't fare as well as their senior counterparts, losing to the Fenelon Falls Falcons by a 5-0 score.

Redmen devastate Wildcats 61-7 in high school senior football play

The visiting Weldon Wildcats of Lindsay suffered a devastating loss at the hands of the Redmen in senior high school football action Thursday in Haliburton.

The Redmen skinned the Wildcats 61-7, keeping their season unbeaten streak intact.

"We didn't try to run the score up," coach Tim Davies said. "That's just how it ended up."

Greg Simmons led the scoring rampage with four touchdowns. Ryan Anderson added two six-pointers and single touchdowns went to Shane Parks, Matt Reid and Devon Dart. George Godfrey's kicking foot was in tune as he added seven point-after singles.

The Redmen had built a 21-0 lead before the Wildcats scored their lone touchdown in the second quarter.

"Sixty-one to seven might say it all," Davies said. "Greg Simmons had a good day on offense."

Defensively, John Swinson and Chris Moynes were standouts, according to the coach.

"Our offensive line must have played well if they could run the ball that successfully," Davies said. "We threw the ball a little bit. It was a little bit more interesting game for our defense in that they (the Wildcats) threw the ball somewhat successfully as well."

The Redmen have one game left in the regular season schedule. They will go to Lindsay to take on the Lindsay Collegiate Spartans this Friday.

Then, they will meet the second place team for the Kawartha West championship. The date of that game is yet to be confirmed, but it will be on the Redmen's home field.

"It could very well be Weldon we meet in the Kawartha West championship," Davies said.

"We didn't try to run the score up," "That's just how it ended up."":

Redmen senior football coach Tim Davies

HHSS junior field hockey team in the running for a playoff berth

In five games this season, the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School junior field hockey team has two wins, two losses and one tie.

The team played host to Crestwood Secondary of Peterborough October 7, shading the competition 1-0.

Kim Varty was the game's lone scorer, assisted by Jocelyn Eastmure. It was scored in the second half, off a penalty corner.

"They had a really strong game," said coach Traci Hubbert.

Liane Dron played a very strong game defensively for Haliburton against Crestwood.

An October 2 game at Lakefield saw the league leading Adam Scott team from Peterborough work to eke out a 1-0 win.

"We played the top rated team in the league right now and we lost 1-0 which is great," Hubbert said. "They had a really strong defensive game."

Hubbert said Haliburton was tied with Crestwood going into last Tuesday's game, so the local squad has taken a two-point lead over the Mustangs.

"It was a crucial game for us to win in order to go to the playoffs," Hubbert said. "I think we're pretty secure in the playoff area now."

"We have a really young team and as a young team they are playing really well together," Hubbert said. "They're working really hard at all of our games. Any games that we've lost have been really close. We've had full turnouts at practice and excellent effort. They've been doing really well."

Hubbert said she is confident her team will make the playoffs.

Haliburton has one regular season game left. It will be at home against Lakefield College School this Friday.

Minden Seniors Curling Club

Rain date proves ideal for Fall Golf Tournament

by Gail Grainger

The annual Minden Seniors' Curling Club Fall Golf Tournament was scheduled for September 11. Joan Davies, Helen Rice and their committee drew up the teams. Everyone was anxious to get out and play, but Mother Nature had a different agenda -- rain, rain and more rain, prompting calls to all team captains to cancel and reschedule for our rain date.

Later that afternoon, we met back at the Minden Curling Club for a beautiful turkey dinner prepared by Helen Rice, Joan Davies and Gord Arthur and their helpers Jean Robson and Ann McAdam. Todd Grainger and his crew made short work of shucking and cooking the corn.

Thanks to Carla and Keith Fountain, Jack and Winn Taylor, Angela O'Neill and Ambrose and Theresa Carroll for cleaning up after our dinner and all the people who pitched in to help. It was a great job by all.

Joan Davies did an excellent job of reshuffling the teams to get them ready to tee off on September 18. The weather was perfect, gentle breezes and temperatures in the 70s greeting the 19 teams, consisting of 21 women and 51 men, for a wonderful day of golf at Blairhampton Golf Club.

Muriel Harrington was there to make sure everyone signed in and she, along with Helen Rice, kept track of all the scores.

Our annual membership night was held on Tuesday, September 23. Muriel Harrington catered the event, to the de-

14 goals for, 0 against Senior field hockey team remains undefeated

Domination is the name of the game for the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School senior field hockey team. The girls added another win to their total on October 7, for an undefeated record in their first four games. The Haliburton squad has scored 14 goals this season, while keeping the opposition off the scoresheet.

The latest victims of the Haliburton assault were the Crestwood Mustangs. Jody Reid scored partway through the first half on a through pass from Amber-Lee Cully.

"In the second half, they had many offensive opportunities but couldn't score," said coach Kit Pizzey. "The defence did whatever they had to do whenever Crestwood threatened. So, we got another shutout."

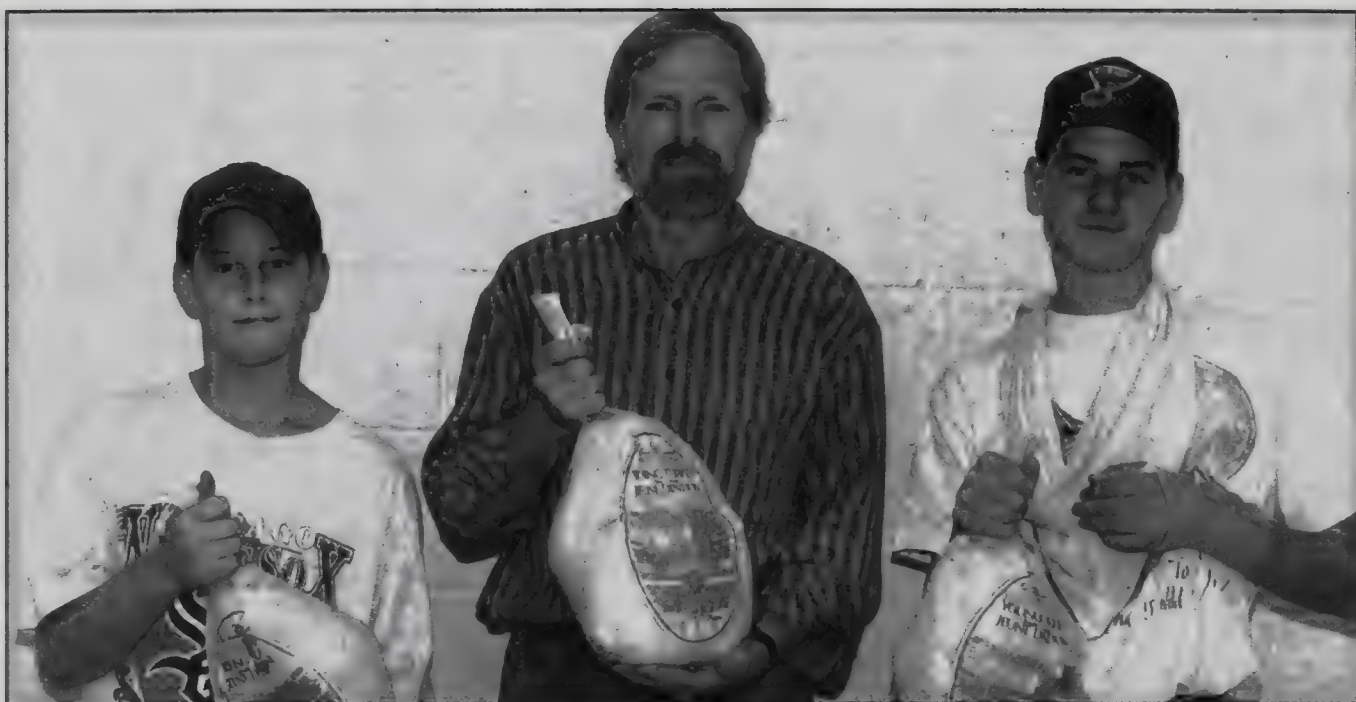

Jen Wales was the goaltender for the Haliburton team in that game.

The previous game was in Lakefield against the Lakefield District Secondary School squad. Haliburton won that game by a 3-0 count.

Cully scored the first goal, from Jen Turner. Turner scored, from Reid and Reid added the third goal, from Meg Agnew.

Britney Hewitt got the shutout in the Hal Hi net.

"We're tied with Lakefield College School for first place," Pizzey said. "We play Lakefield College School this Friday, at home. That will be the big showdown."

TURKEY SHOOTERS: Winners of the annual Turkey Shoot (basketball) at Archie Stouffer Elementary School received their birds Friday. Shane Baumhour (left) of Grade 7 scored seven out of 10, teacher Glen Carter (8/10) and Justin Walker (8/10) were three of the winners. Adam Googh was the Grade 4 winner with 7/10, Ryan Robinson won the Grade 5 competition (9/10) and Kolt Smith was the Grade 6 winner (7/10).

Junior Redmen beat the odds

by Bruce Griffith, junior football coach

Miracles do happen in high school sports. Members of the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School junior football team thought they had been eliminated from the playoffs when they just narrowly lost to Fenelon Falls on October 3. But the first place team (I.E. Weldon) lost badly the same day to the last place Lindsay Collegiate team.

This set up a chance for the Redmen, if they could beat the still first place Weldon Wildcats by 22 points, they could make the championship round.

A team that has improved steadily since early September, the Redmen came out storming, with tailback Cody Duda scoring three touchdowns in the first half. He got some help from linemen Mark Comeau, Paul Daniels and Jamie Johnston. Rookie Jamie Doan caught a beautiful pass from quarterback Mike Hamilton on the second touchdown for the two point conversion.

With a 20-0 lead at half time, the redmen knew they could not let up -- they still needed another touchdown.

Zippidy Duda, the toughest player in the junior league, scored his fourth touchdown or his best game of the year, with 270 yards rushing. The one point conversion attempt by Brent Bolger was good and the Redmen thought they could relax.

The Wildcats knew one touchdown would save their season and they would not give up.

Haliburton's defence, led by Mitch Johnson, Brock Ladurantaye, Brent Bolger, Adam Clarkson, Gary Kernohan and Dennis Collins had a fantastic day, refusing to allow Weldon gain any yards. The final score was 27-0.

The whole team, including rookie grade nine stars Shane Walker, Jamie Doan, Kenny Mott and Josh Shaw played an exceptional game.

Many thanks to parents, fans, trainers and the spirit squad for cheering us on to victory.

The inaugural Lane to Fame (300/700) Roll-Off was held at County Bowling Centre in Minden on Sunday, October 5.

In this event, all the bowlers who have rolled 300 or more, the women who have rolled a 700 or more triple and the men who have rolled a 750 or more triple were invited to participate. These are based on flat scores (no handicap), from the 1996-97 season.

The names are (colourfully) posted at the bowling centre for all to see. To date this season, nine bowlers have started the new list for 1997-98.

The tournament used a pins over average scoring system, (more on page 16)

Council considers skateboard park on concrete pad at old curling rink site

ity would serve to keep skateboarders off the streets, as well as provide a safe environment for them.

The skateboarders are willing to conduct fund-raising projects to finance the construction of ramps, as well as provide labour.

The result of discussions at the Parks and Recreation Committee meeting was a resolution by the committee recommending to council that it give approval in principal to the proposal to have a skateboard park constructed at the old curling club site after the current building on the site is removed. The resolution specified that the proposal be conditional upon the costs of the project being covered by fund-raising efforts.

During subsequent discussions at Thursday's council meeting, deputy-reeve Jerry Rome noted, "If the young people buy into it (in terms of fund-raising), I think it would have a better chance of success."

He added that it would be imperative to have representation of the skateboarders on a sub-committee, which would be set up to organize the project.

Since the facility would be on Minden Fairgrounds property, council will contact the Fair Board and Minden Agricultural Society for their comments.

OPP charges for reports

The minutes of the Fire Committee meeting held Tuesday, October 7 at the Anson, Hindon and Minden council chambers note that the Haliburton Fire Department was charged $40 for a copy of an OPP incident report, which the fire department had requested.

That prompted councillor Daryl Moore to comment, "Maybe we should start charging for every piece of information that comes from the municipality (to the OPP)."

Reeve Jeanne Anthon noted that the "user pay" concept is becoming more prevalent.

Tax write-offs

"I hate to subsidize people who think they can run a business and then six months later find they can't," said councillor Sinc Nesbitt. "I wish there was something we could do about it."

Nesbitt's comments followed on the heels of the passing of a resolution writing off uncollectable taxes in the amount of $3,369.02.

694 vehicles checked, 37 charges laid

The local detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police recently participated in Operation Impact. This province-wide effort was mounted October 4, to target erratic and aggressive drivers and those not wearing seat belts.

In the Minden/Coboconk detachment area, 694 vehicles were stopped resulting in 22 seat belt charges being laid. As well, 15 other charges were laid. No one in the detachment area was charged with criminal code drinking and driving charges.

Across the central region of the province, which includes this detachment, 287 seat belt charges were laid, 12 criminal code drinking and driving violations and 129 other charges. In total 22,072 vehicles were checked.

LEIC still confused by lack of ministry guidelines

The following report was prepared by the chair of the Local Education Improvement Commission (LEIC), Cheryl Murdoch.

Absence of guidelines

In spite of the fact that guidelines from the Education Improvement Commission have not been delivered, the local committee for district school board # 15 is moving forward quickly to engage members in the naming of the new board.

On October 14, all schools will receive an invitation to participate in the process. While the time-lines are very short, the LEIC encourages full participation by students, staff and parents in this exciting project.

The committee will be responsible for making the final decision.

Role of the trustee

Although the municipal elections are occurring within a month, the Ministry of Education and Training has yet to define the role of a school board or the role of a trustee.

The LEIC has prepared a position paper on the role of the trustee, highlighting such issues as the need to continue the role as "guardian of public education" and the need to not diminish the role by assigning all major power and responsibility to the provincial government--for example negotiations, budget setting, accountability for the quality of education.

Committee members agreed that "these functions should remain at the local level within the realm of the trustee". LEIC chair, Cheryl Murdoch, will deliver the position paper during the consultation meeting with the EIC in Orillia.

Sub committee reports

The business services sub committee completed its work and the LEIC received a draft report for consideration.

Included in the report was a priority listing of items which must receive attention in the period immediately following the election of the new board, as well as other items that must be handled by the new board as time goes on. Interested parties may see a copy of this draft report at their local board office.

Strategic planning

Recognizing the need to involve as many staff members as possible in the planning process, the LEIC unanimously supported a resolution asking Directors of Education to engage employees in discussions regarding current operating practices.

Those people who currently assume responsibility for such functions as payroll, transportation, purchasing, in-service training and program support could be very helpful in identifying practices which could best be adopted during this transition period.

It was agreed that including a broader group of employees in this process would assist in building allegiance to the new organization.

Future meetings

LEIC:

- October 21: Lindsay Education Centre.
- November 3: County Council Building, Minden.
- November 12: Bracebridge Education Centre.

Town Hall Meeting:

- October 14: Lindsay Collegiate and Vocational Institute.

Pension reform legislation introduced

In September 1997, the Federal government introduced legislation to reform the Canada Pension Plan and ensure that it can be counted on by future generations. The changes will not affect present beneficiaries of the CPP, or anyone aged 65 or over on December 31, 1997. The legislation is based on an agreement between the federal and the provincial and territorial governments in February, following public consultation and a thorough review. The proposed legislation will move to the finance committee for a final round of hearings and debate before it will be voted on in Parliament.

The CPP has given working Canadians a secure plan for retirement income since 1966. It also provides benefits in the event of disability or death. With the Canadian population aging rapidly, the CPP had to be reformed. The proportion of seniors in the Canadian population will nearly double over the next 35 years. According to a 1995 actuarial report, if existing plans for contribution rates and benefits were not changed, the CPP fund would have been exhausted by 2015.

In February 1996, we released a discussion paper and held a round of public consultations. From April to June 1996, we heard from seniors groups, tax experts, social policy experts and other concerned Canadians all over the country. The conclusion: the CPP must be preserved, by giving it stronger financing, improving its investment practices, and reducing costs.

To ensure the stability of CPP benefits, the plan's reserve fund will be built up to the equivalent of five years of benefits, from the current level of two years. The fund will be invested in a portfolio of securities by an independent CPP Investment Board, operating at arms-length from the government. It will have one mandate: to get the best return on investment. Higher returns from better investment practices will help to pay benefits for future pensioners.

Under the proposed reforms, contribution rates to the CPP will rise from 5.85 percent today to 9.9 percent over the next six years, and then remain stable. Contributions will be paid in equal shares by employers and employees. If this increase were delayed, future rates would have to rise even higher, to more than 14 percent.

With the changes, benefits will continue to be fully indexed to inflation. The ages for early, normal and late retirement will also remain unchanged. Current seniors and beneficiaries of the CPP will not be affected by this legislation in any way.

With these changes, the Federal government is securing the future of the CPP, one of the three pillars of Canada's retirement income system. The CPP is meant to replace a portion of pre-retirement earnings, and complements the two other pillars: the Seniors Benefit, which in 2001 will replace both Old Age Security and the Guaranteed Income Supplement, and private savings through RRSPs and other private pension plans.

These reasonable steps will ensure that the CPP is sustainable, fair across generations, and affordable in the future. With the new CPP and the Seniors Benefit, Canada has done more than any other country to prepare its public pension system to meet the challenge of an aging society.

Ottawa report

by John O'Reilly, MP

TSW final report of the 1997 season

The summer recreation season has come to a close and so this is the last weekly update on water level conditions until next May.

The Haliburton area lakes declined to 36.5% on October 6, which is still 6.5% less than normal for that date. Only minimum flows were run from them and, with some rain this past week, the decline on these lakes was only 2.7%.

The Kawarthas are near normal levels for the end of the navigation season. The last day for the operation of the locks is October 15. There will be no regular staff at the locks. Water control activities will be done by a travelling crew in each canal sector.

Lake Simcoe is running about 2 cm below its rule curve for this time of the year. Lake Couchiching is somewhat lower with only minimum flow leaving the lake to enter the Severn River.

HCSA grant approved

After reviewing the financial statement provided by the Haliburton County Snowmobile Association, the council of Anson, Hindon and Minden passed a resolution approving a grant of $2,000.

Councillor Sinc Nesbitt commented on the quality of the statement submitted by the HCSA.

"It is a really good financial statement," he said.

Council's financial support of the organization reflects the importance of the snowmobilers' contribution to the local economy.

MINDEN - HALIBURTON COUNTY
Now that the snow season is almost upon us, it's time to time up the down hill, cross country skis, snowboards and snowmobiles. Although all these sports don't go hand in hand, you can have one or all in the spacious hills of Haliburton. Down hill skiing at Sir Sam's in Eagle Lake, with 12 slopes to choose from. A Nordic cross country ski track running for miles, and the best groomed snowmobile trails in Ontario. The best way to enjoy all this is from your own ski chalet located on the top of the hills. I have many choice lots to choose from both from my own listings and the extensive MLS system. Picturesque hardwood treed lots, some with driveways in, large road frontages from 190 feet to 280 feet and depth up to over 300 feet. Imagine your own chalet nestled in the trees, a warm crackling fire, a bottle of wine, just seconds to the ski hills or snowmobile trails for weekends and a snow season of fun. Call me for details, a copy of the property listings, or to arrange for a tour of these fantastic winter/summer getaway hideaways. Prices from $6,000 to $50,000 to meet all pocket book budgets. Information and volunteer recruitment

Displays will mark Hospice Week

Area residents will have an opportunity to learn about Hospice Service in the Haliburton Highlands during the coming week.

"We are marking Hospice Awareness Week," Linda May Powers explained. She is the co-ordinator of the Haliburton Highlands Hospice Program. The service is co-ordinated by SIRCH.

"To help raise community awareness, we are planning a number of community displays," Powers explained. "We want to explain our program to the public, and also encourage anyone who wants to be a volunteer to consider our service."

Since we set up in 1995, we have helped 36 individuals with life threatening illnesses and 75 family members," she explained, noting that her organization does not only deal with individuals who are terminally ill. She noted the volunteers have, for example, helped cancer victims deal with the stress of a cancer diagnosis and treatment. "That is why we call them 'hospice companions,'" she commented.

One of the reasons for taking their message to the public is to dispel myths such as those. "Another is that individuals with large families don't need our services." She explained that often terminally ill individuals need a neutral or non-family member to express their feelings to. "Sometimes it is easier to talk to a 'stranger' than a close relative about some of the issues people must deal with as death approaches," Powers explained. "Often they don't want to worry their family and so we provide an outlet for them."

The local group also has a bereavement support group which accepts clients even if the deceased was not served by the hospice program.

There are 21 volunteers working within the local hospice group. All volunteers undergo training.

The displays that will be mounted this week will be located in the Bank of Montreal in Haliburton on Tuesday; Dollo's IGA in Minden on Wednesday; the IGA store in Haliburton on Thursday; Easton's Valu-mart in Minden on Friday, and Saturday at the Haliburton Hospital. The volunteers will be at the booth from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Anyone requiring more information is invited to contact Linda May Powers at 457-1742.

AHM appoints new building inspector/ by-law officer

by Jerry Grozelle

Andre O'Bumsawin has been appointed chief building official and by-law enforcement officer for the municipality of Anson, Hindon and Minden. O'Bumsawin officially took over his duties on October 6.

The new municipal employee brings 10 years experience as building inspector for the City of Oshawa.

"For the first nine years I was doing residential and small business inspections," O'Bumsawin said. "Over the past year I was doing more complex inspections on bigger commercial buildings."

O'Bumsawin may be familiar to some as owner/operator of J-Kaloo's Restaurant on Highway 35 south of Carnarvon.

"I hope to show the public I'm here to help," O'Bumsawin said. "Not just to enforce by-laws. I want to be a team member with the construction industry."

Looking forward to working in Minden, O'Bumsawin said, "I'm very happy to be here. I think it's going to be a very nice municipality to live in."

O'Bumsawin's wife, Faye Amey, works for the planning department in Oshawa. The goal is for her and Andre's step-daughter Sherry, 17 to move to Haliburton County when Sherry is finished high school. He also has a step-son Ryan Amey, 21. The family cottage on Twelve Mile Lake, is where O'Bumsawin will be staying full time now that he is working for the municipality of Anson, Hindon and Minden.

O'Bumsawin is a native of Sudbury. He says living in Haliburton County is closer to home for him. He prefers the smaller town environment.

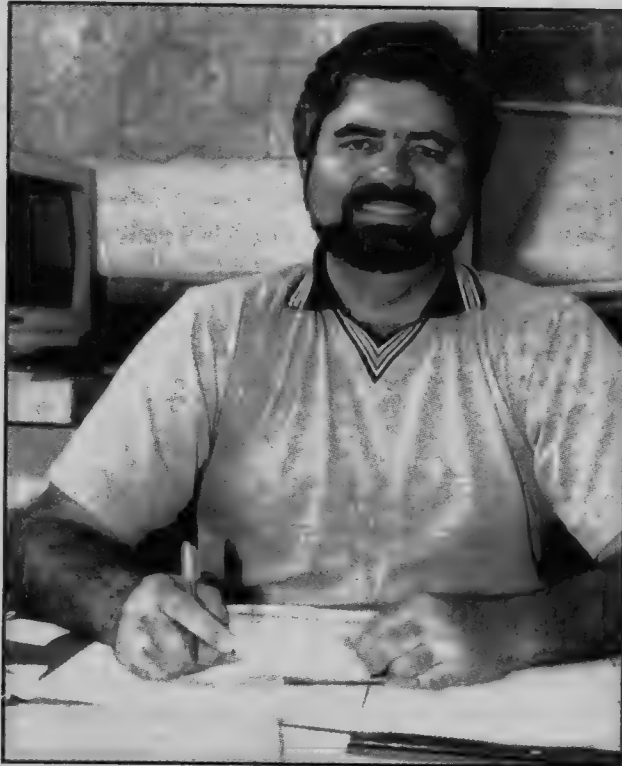

"The city atmosphere is not very appealing to me," he said.

The job in Minden will be a step up in responsibility for O'Bumsawin. He will have direct contact with the municipal council, something that was handled by his superiors in Oshawa.

O'Bumsawin said he expects quite a bit of growth in the municipality over the next several years.

"We're getting ready to deal with any kind of growth professionally and adequately," he said. "It will be very interesting. There is a lot of hope."

O'Bumsawin graduated from Cambrian College in Sudbury as a civil engineering technologist. He also has his certified building official certificate from the Ontario Building Officials' Association. Another, unrelated certificate he has is as a hardwood lumber grader. He took that course in Memphis, Tennessee.

When he's not working, O'Bumsawin is an avid curler. He was a member of the Whitby Curling Club for 10 years, serving as president in 1995. He was skip of the mixed team that went to the regionals.

"I hope to get back into curling, if not this season, next year," he said.

Sailing is another passion for O'Bumsawin. He also enjoys fishing and cooking.

OPP helping to make Hallowe'en fun for everyone

"Hallowe'en should be a fun night for youngsters who go out to Trick Or Treat," a spokesman for the Minden/Coboconk detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police stated. "Unfortunately some people think it is a night when throwing eggs and causing property damage is acceptable. It is not."

"This type of behavior will be treated as criminal in nature and charges will be initiated where offences are identified."

To help reduce the incidents of vandalism, extra police will be on patrol assisted by community policing volunteers and local fire departments.

The police offer a number of suggestions for parents to ensure the safety of their children as they head out on Hallowe'en:

- Do not let your child go out on his/her own. Go with them or make sure they are with friends.
- Change your child into an angel or a monster with make-up. Using make-up does not cut off a youngster's vision as a mask does.
- Children should stay in a familiar neighbourhood.
- Avoid long costumes that could cause children to trip and fall.
- Children should not eat their treats until after they have arrived home and the parents have had a chance to inspect them. Bring some of your own treats along for them to have while trick or treating.
- Dress children in bright or light coloured costumes. Use reflective tape to make the costume more visible.

number who voted in our last municipal election.

It was a strong show of support that will prove worthwhile - this jail will bring long-term jobs to our area.

The new multi-purpose, maximum-security jail is part of Ontario's plan to replace older and less-efficient jails with large, ultra-efficient facilities. The jail houses provincial offenders (who serve a maximum of two years less a day) and will hold up to 1,200 prisoners.

Our new jail will be on Highway 36, about six kilometres north of the Highways 7 and 36 intersection.

Construction of the jail is to begin early next year and this project will create numerous construction jobs. The Ministry of the Solicitor General and Correctional Services will work with the community to hear comments about the construction and operation of the jail.

As I said before, this is exciting news for our area. I think we should all congratulate Mayor Stollar and the others for their excellent work and for putting together a proposal that met and exceeded provincial criteria.

Course will teach women self-defense techniques

by Jamie Read,
HHSS student reporter

Local women and teenagers now have the opportunity to learn self-defence.

On the weekend of October 25 and 26 The Family Services of Haliburton County are offering a basic class in self-defence at Haliburton Highlands Secondary School.

The participants in the program will be learning, "WEN-DO", which is a system of simple and easy to remember techniques for protecting themselves in a wide range of situations.

Women will not only learn how to physically defend themselves, but they will also learn ways to stay mentally focused in situations like these. To someone facing an attack situation, fear will often over-come the natural instinct to protect one's self. This "mental freeze" can leave the victim helpless and at the mercy of the attacker.

Claire Sylvan, an employee of Family Services of Haliburton County is also helping co-ordinate this class. She commented, "Women have had enough. You need to learn to say 'I'm worth defending myself'".

Most women think that the probability of being attacked in a rural area like the Haliburton Highlands is low, but the risks are everywhere.

"I feel this should be a course offered to every young woman. It's a necessary skill to have," says Claire Sylvan.

It has been shown statistically that one-half of all Canadian women have experienced some form of violence since the age of 16. However, effective, trained resistance (like WEN-DO), can decrease the chance of completed sexual assault by about 70% to 80%.

She cites an incident involving a 70 year old woman living in Toronto who had taken the WEN-DO course. Amazingly, she scared off two potential young attackers by using the skills she had been taught while learning WEN-DO.

Over the duration of the weekend, women will learn important key points, such as aiming for certain spots, during an attack, that can immobilize major functions; how to control adrenaline rushes; and how to not panic.

Panicking is the worst thing a person can do during an attack. Panic causes someone to think irrationally and therefore, do something that could potentially give your attacker the advantage in the situation.

To build confidence, women can share WEN-DO success stories.

WEN-DO, Womens

Self Defence has three major goals: awareness, avoidance, and action.

For more information or to register for this class, please call The Family Services of Haliburton County at 457-5345, or ask for Claire Sylvan at ext. 312.

Birthdays dot the October calendar at Hyland Crest

October has certainly been beautiful so far. Brilliant blue skies and the vibrant colours of the trees have presented a wonderful scene. How fortunate we have been with our weather lately. We can only hope it continues for a while longer. A week ago we were pleasantly surprised by a visit from Margaret Anderson, R.N. Margaret was a nurse in our home and she was remembered by many of us. The following day our happy hour was much enjoyed with a visit from the Minden Line Dancers.

Over the weekend some special events took place. Judy Stevenson went home to celebrate her birthday and received a surprise party in her honour. Anne McKay visited her daughter where a birthday party took place for Anne's birthday. Also on the weekend, a few of us attended a surprise bridal shower for Andrea Barry, R.N. who is to be married on October 18th. Bertha Hughes attended a bridal shower for her granddaughter, Carol Ann, at the Minden United Church. All who attended these special occasions reported a good time was had with lots of wonderful gifts.

The Salvation Army was here for their monthly visit on October 6th and many of us attended. The following day quite a few of us indulged in some "fish & chips" and in the evening enjoyed our cards. Corinne and Pearl (our volunteers) were here to help us. It was good to see Corinne again, as she has just returned from vacationing in California.

Yesterday, October 8th, and another countryside drive. This trip took us to Kinmount, Gelert, and our own Minden area. We thoroughly enjoyed the beautiful scenery and once again marvelled at the colours. To top the day, the Grandfathers were here in the evening to entertain us.

Today (October 9th) our tea party will take place. The "Sarah Group" will be here with their goodies.

This group consists of young women from the Minden United Church. We thank them for their time with us.

We're pleased to report that Jean Jennings is up and about. It is certainly good to see her. Also, welcome back to Ruby Roberts from her stay in the hospital.

Twice a week many of us attend "Keep Fit" and "Morning Stretch". It certainly helps us to exercise our bodies and we have fun. We are quite happy with our new Restorative Programme and Linda, Jane, and Nancy keep us on our toes. Thanks ladies. As this is being written, our maintenance staff is putting our vegetable and flower gardens to bed and readying the patio for winter, in their shirtsleeves, another beautiful day.

Bye for now. Enjoy this weather while you can. Have a safe week.

HEALTH NEWS

Skin Savers

A back-to-basics approach to healthy skin begins with a simple three-step process: cleansing, moisturizing and protecting. The good news is that good skin doesn't have to cost a lot of money. Most of what you spend on expensive products is a result of perfumes, packaging and marketing and has nothing to do with basic moisturizing properties. Unless you have acne or eczema, which requires the care of a dermatologist, the certified lines of skin care products available at your local drug stores have everything you need for great skin and at prices that are easy on the wallet.

CARDS OF THANKS

The family of the late Fred Cooper wish to thank the many friends and relatives for their support during Fred's illness and the days which followed. The many cards, phone calls, visits, gifts of food received, the beautiful flowers and your attendance at the Wake, funeral and burial were so much appreciated.

We thank the doctors and nurses for their excellent care in Peterborough, Kingston, Haliburton and Minden, also the Cancer drivers, Arnold and Ed Dykstra for two trips to Kingston. Thanks to Jeff and Nadene for bringing Illa home and to them and sister Pat for the hours and nights spent with her. The Gordon Monk Funeral Home gave us complete ease and satisfaction with their kindness and very efficient service throughout and we give thanks.

We had many wonderful comments regarding the Funeral Service and we thank those who participated Fr. Brian Parker, minister, Gordon Monk, eulogy, Barbara Trocewicz, reader, Ann McAdam, organist. The reception catered by St. Paul's A.C.W. was excellent and we were so pleased that we could hold it right at the funeral home. Thanks to one and all and may God Bless!

It was just the way Fred would have wished it.

Illia, Garry & Ruth, Jerald & Pat, Ralph & Cathy, Colleen & Martin and their families.

IN MEMORIAM

McAFEE, William G. - In memory of a loving husband, father and grandfather who passed away October 12, 1990. Sweet memories will linger forever.

Years that may come cannot sever
Our loving remembrance of you.
Sadly missed by Wife Margaret and Family.*

WRIGHT, Eunice - In loving memory of my dear wife Eunice who passed away October 14, 1994.
*There will always be a heart-ache
And often a silent tear
But always the precious memories
Of the days when you were here.
Sadly missed by her husband

IN MEMORIAM

STANK, Edith - October 17, 1996.
*Sad was the parting, no one can tell,
So sudden on earth the sorrow fell,
The blow was hard, the shock severe,
To part with one I loved so dear.
Dearest still as time departs
Your memory lives within my heart.
If I had all the world to give,
I'd give it, yes, and more,
To hear your voice, see your smile,
And greet you at the door.
But all I can do, dear Edie,
Is go and tend your grave,
And leave behind tears and tokens of love
To the best wife God made.
Forever deeply mourned,
Love, Freddie.*

IN MEMORIAM

PHILLIPS, Goldie and Blanche - In loving memory of our parents and grandparents.
*There is a bridge of memory
From here to Heaven above,
That keeps us very close to us,
It's called the Bridge of Love.
As time goes by without you
And the days turn into years,
They hold a million memories
And a thousand silent tears.
If roses grow in Heaven Lord,
Will you pick a large bouquet,
And gently give it to them
With love from us today.
Remembered by:
Gerry, Danny, David, Donnie,
Dougie, Glenn, Pat, Rosie,
Dolly, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.*
